Andre'a McDonald v IMC, Docket No. 17-cv-12787

Dear Judge Schneider:

We represent defendants in the above-referenced Hightower case. By prior Order, Your Honor established February 19, 2019 as the deadline for defendants to respond to plaintiff's outstanding three motions (for leave to file third amended complaint; to compel deposition questions be answered and for sanctions; and a spoliation motion). We are in the process of filing defendants' response to the motion to file third amended complaint (and I hope my office has e-filed that response by the time you get this letter) (I am working from home, on a limited basis, while I recuperate from my 2/5 replacement knee surgery). I also am nearing completion of defendants' response in opposition to the motion to compel deposition questions and sanctions, but am concerned about meeting the Court's 2/19 filing deadline. Accordingly, we respectfully request a brief extension, from 2/19 through 2/25, for defendants to file their responses to those two remaining motions.

Opposing counsel, Caren Gurmankin, Esquire, has no objection to our request, and asks for a similar six-day extension of her time to file any reply (to which request we do not object).
